NZX Release

Appointment of Chief Financial Officer.

AWF Madison is pleased to announce the appointment of Nick Williams as the Group Chief Financial Officer replacing Paul Mens who leaves the company on 23 October 2015. Nick joined AWF Madison in August 2014 as the Financial Controller and will assume the Group Chief Financial Officer role now, allowing Paul to complete other projects.

Nick has extensive finance, information systems and operations experience having previously held senior finance roles at Hudson Recruitment Group, Tower Insurance and Fernz Group.

AWF Madison Group thanks Paul for his sizeable contribution to the business especially in relation to improving compliance processes and implementing new IT systems.
