Group's Chief Financial Officer Tony Staub, has signalled his intent to depart the business on 29th May 2024

The Board of Accordant Group has been advised that the Group's Chief Financial Officer Tony Staub, has signalled his intent to depart the business on 29th May 2024, as he looks to reduce his executive commitments this year.

During his 7-year tenure, Tony has contributed significantly to the Group's Financial, Risk and Corporate governance structure.

Group CEO Jason Cherrington said "The process for seeking Tony's replacement is underway, and I'd like to personally thank Tony for his hands-on approach, support and dedication over many years within the Group".
